

THE LETTER

Irish Journal for Lacanian Psychoanalysis

The Letter was launched in 1994 and since then has been publishing work from the Irish Lacanian field and from international contributors. The journal is committed to the publication of work that engages seriously with the discourse launched by Sigmund Freud and developed by Jacques Lacan.

We have recently launched The Letter Archive - a growing collection of research articles published by our journal. The Archive is an essential resource for those interested in the field of Lacanian Psychoanalysis. To gain access to all articles, you must have an Annual Subscription. Subscriptions support the maintenance of the archive, running costs and the print run of a limited print version. The Letter is a non-profit entity.

Rate:

- Institutional Rate - Access to The Archive for a period of twelve months: €500

All relevant Institutions may apply directly for the above rate. Once you secured the Annual Subscription, we will provide you with details for your students to use so that they may access The Archive online with their own account/student email address.
